Elderly Men of Jasper.

Editor News:

to the postoffice to get the mail this morning, was when I saw a company of old men standing tofound them all cheerful as tho' they were all just boys. Seeing they were old in age, but young in spirit. I asked their ages, which I give as follows:

Samuel Bennett, 73; Lot Warren, 73; R. H. Price, 76; J. D. Deakins, 76; John Myers 77, W. J. Johnson, 78; A. Wolfe, 89.

It is not often we find living in a community so many men of this age. They are young in spirit, yet feeble in health. They are fast approaching the hour when they will be gathered, one by one, with their own in an upper and better Kingdom.

God bless these men who have shared alike hardships, suffering and sorrow of the war of the

PATHE RECORDS are the only guaranteed records in the world; they are played with a saphire ball instead of a needle, the saphire ball is round, does not scratch the record,

PATHE RECORDS reproduce every tone perfectly, they are sweet and pleasing to the ear, the "Hawaiian guitars and ukaleles" carry you back to dreamy Honolulu, and "Billy Murry" sings as though he was singing just for you; "I Love a Lassie" carries you back to the stories of Scotland, and "Tell Mother I'll Be There" has all the feeling with which
